Can You
NAME THAT TUNE?

Virtual Name That Tune

When you hear a song can you name the song or artists? Do you know the lyrics to songs? Do you recognize album art cover?

If you answered yes to these questions (or even if you answered no), join us for Virtual Name That Tune to raise funds for efforts such as teacher grants, student scholarships and other programs. Gather your team through a zoom platform (together or apart) and test your team's knowledge of songs across the decades by listening to quick soundbites played over a series of rounds. Here's how you can participate:
